Carma has been a business owner and a dance instructor for over 25 years. She has produced 27 dance productions. In the early years of her dance career, Carma performed and competed throughout the United States. Carma has won several awards in dance and choreography. She has shared her love of dance with thousands of children throughout her teaching career. For more information, please visit www.carmascreations.com

The goals of Carma's Dance Program are:

- To develop a true appreciation of dance
- To encourage your child to experience the rewards of a positive attitude towards learning
- To offer high-quality dance instruction with the convenience of being taught at your child's preschool
- To teach dance in a positive, safe and structured environment
 - To encourage children to always do their best
 - To achieve all of the above while having fun!!

Thank you,

Carma Lee
